

Privacy and Cookie Policy

This website belongs to IT INNOVATIONS company - later on "our Company" or "we".

We try to protect your personal data, so we claim that any of your personal information received while using the website will remain confidential. Any changes to the privacy policy will show on the website.

This policy (together with our terms of use and any other documents referred to on it) sets out the basis on which any personal data we collect from you, or that you provide to us, will be processed by us. Please read the following carefully to understand our views and practices regarding your personal data and how we will treat it.

INFORMATION WE MAY COLLECT FROM YOU

We may collect and process the following data about you:

- we may ask you for information when you report a problem with our site
- if you contact us, we may keep a record of that correspondence
- we may also ask you to complete surveys that we use for research purposes, although you do not have to respond to them
- details of your visits to our site including, but not limited to, traffic data, location data, weblogs and other communication data and the resources that you access

The website also uses Google Analytics, to track where our visitors are looking for information and what parts of the website they use most. This helps us to improve to enhance your usability. Google Analytics Cookies files do not collect personal information about website visitors. More information about Google Analytics can be found at <https://developers.google.com/analytics/resources/concepts/gaConceptsCookies>

IP ADDRESSES

We may collect information about your computer, including where available your IP address, operating system and browser type, for system administration and to report aggregate information to our advertisers. This is statistical data about our users' browsing actions and patterns, and does not identify any individual.

COOKIES

What are Cookies?

Cookies are small text files that store information on your hard drive or browser which means that we can recognise that you have visited the our website. They make it easier for you to maintain your preferences on our website. A cookie often includes a randomly generated number which is stored on your device. Many cookies are automatically deleted after you finish using the website.

Use of Cookies

This website does not store any information that would, on its own, allow us to identify individual users of this service without their permission. Any cookies that may be used by this website are used either solely on a per session basis or to maintain user preferences. Cookies are not shared with any third parties.

Third-party service cookies

Some of our business partners, whose websites you can visit after clicking on the link from our site, use cookies. We have no control over these Cookie files.

Access to information

We will take the necessary precautions to protect your information from loss, misuse or changes.

Changes to our privacy policy

If we ever change our privacy policy, we will publish changes on our website so that our users always know what information we collect, how we use it and under what conditions, if any will be, we disclose it to others.
